Permlight Files LED Fixture Patent Infringement Suit Against Tempo Industries

Tustin, Calif, May 3, 2004- Permlight Products announced today that it has filed a patent infringement lawsuit against Tempo Industries in the United States District Court for the Central District of California. The lawsuit alleges that Tempo's Guardian, Sentry and Sentinel LED floor lighting systems infringe Permlight's patent, U.S. Patent No. 6,082,870, entitled "Tread Area and Step Edge Lighting System" And 6,416,200 entitled "Surface Lighting System". The patent is related to Permlight's popular AisleLight, StepLight, LightPath and SeatLight products. The complaint requests damages and an injunction against infringement.
